¹ Viewshed mapping does not include the screening value of existing structures. This is a particularly important distinction in populated areas, including the Village of the Cape Vincent and other commercial and residential areas, where existing structures provide significant screening of distant views. With these conditions, the viewshed map (Exhibit 3.8.2) conservatively overestimates theoretical visibility in areas where the Project may be substantially screened from view. For this reason the approximate number of turbines visible is not reported for visual resources located in the Village Center Landscape Unit.
